

General information

Postgraduate students successfully completing a semester of study aboard The Scholar Ship may, subject to approval by Macquarie University, apply credits towards a Master of Arts in International Communication. This degree requires one additional semester in Sydney, Australia at Macquarie University.

For more information about the Master of Arts in International Communication from Macquarie University, please visit the program website at <http://www.mucic.mq.edu.au/postgraduate.html>

Admissions requirements

You must have earned (or anticipate earning) a minimum of a bachelor's degree (or equivalent) from a recognized institution prior to the voyage with a 2.5 GPA (Australian). For further information on how this requirement can be approximated in other educational systems, please see the Required Academic Performance by Country document.

Evidence of English language proficiency is also required if English is not your first language. Please see our Application Instructions for minimum requirements.

Your complete academic record will be assessed to determine suitability for admission and you should be prepared to succeed in a rigorous academic environment.

You will receive joint notification from The Scholar Ship and Macquarie University regarding your admission.

How to apply

If you are interested in pursuing this program you can indicate your interest on The Scholar Ship application form. You will be required to indicate your subject preferences on the application form, please refer to the section below for guidance. To view the complete list of subjects and descriptions, please download the Subject Catalog.

Subject Selection

In order to pursue this degree, you must be in the International Communication Learning Circle.

The following subject is required for this Learning Circle and the Master of Arts in International Communication (please note, this subject will automatically populate when you select the International Communication Learning Circle):

- TICM811 Communication & Social, Economic & Political Development

The following subject is also required in this degree program:

- TICM821 Intercultural Communication

The following are electives that can be used towards your pursuit of this degree:

- TICM813 International Communication Flows
- TICM815 Communication and Power Paradigms in International Relations
- TICM892 International Public Relations and Advertising

Please note that TICA801 International Communication is not applicable towards the degree.

Questions?

If you have any questions about the International Communication program, please contact: cic@scmp.mq.edu.au

If you have any questions about the admissions process, please contact: apply@TheScholarShip.com